

I STRONGLY oppose HR4026. There is little difference between the radio and the television as far as media is concerned. I happen to listen to more radio than television. Should I not be informed because of my choice bein different from others? News, weather and sports should be obtainable in radio as well as television and newspapers.